OUR MISSION

Lawrence Hall is a community based service agency embracing at-risk youth and their families by instilling resilience, healing and changing lives for good.

OUR VISION

Hope, healing and resiliency for children.

For more than 150 years, Lawrence Hall has been delivering high quality care to at-risk youth and their families throughout the Chicago metropolitan area. Not only has the agency sustained itself, but it has also redefined how our traumatized youth are educated and treated.

Each year, Lawrence Hall serves over 1,200 youth and families. For them, Lawrence Hall is a pathway to success and a better tomorrow.

Lawrence Hall is a statewide leader in highly effective, evidence-based, and innovative therapeutic treatment. The agency's unique continuum of care, which promotes overall well-being led by an expert staff, has positioned Lawrence Hall to meet the changing and complex needs of youth and families by not only becoming more community-based but by developing preventative programs that help curb violence in our communities.

Lawrence Hall's Programs

Therapeutic Services

Our Therapeutic Services go across all of the Lawrence Hall programs to help youth manage emotions and behaviors, develop social and communication skills, and build self-esteem, self-worth, and stability.

- Health, Wellness & Medical Services
- Family Therapy & Support Services
- Expressive Therapies: Art, Music and Theater
- Balance & Restorative Justice Programming
- Therapeutic Recreation
- Wilderness Therapy
- Canine Therapy
- Youth Leadership Programming

Project Work

Project Work is an integral part of Lawrence Hall's programming and includes: Right Turn, After School Matters, One Summer Chicago PLUS, MY TIME and Try-Me's. Through these programs, Lawrence Hall is able to help youth develop skills and provide them with the tools needed to obtain and maintain employment. In April 2017 our Try-Me's program expanded to include a public-facing student-run café at the University of Chicago's School of Social Service Administration

Foster Care

Lawrence Hall's Foster Care Program annually provides safe, nurturing homes for over 200 youth (birth through 21 years of age) who have been removed from their birth families due to abuse, neglect, dependency, or abandonment. We take great care in selecting and training foster parents who are able to provide the special care our traumatized youth need.

Therapeutic Day School

Lawrence Hall's fully-accredited Therapeutic Day School provides specialized education to meet the needs of students who face extreme difficulty learning in a traditional classroom setting; many are faced with emotional and behavioral disorders as well as learning disabilities that make conventional learning methods unviable.

Residential Treatment Program

The Child and Family Treatment Center is Lawrence Hall's most acute level of care and a valued placement option when youth need residential treatment to help them stabilize and work through their traumatic experiences. Youth at the Center learn how to improve social skills, develop coping mechanisms, form healthy relationships, and maintain a healthy lifestyle.

Older Adolescent Program

Lawrence Hall's Older Adolescent Program provides young adults with comprehensive services designed to meet their individual needs as they prepare to emancipate from the child welfare system. Our two-level program serves youth between the ages of 17 and 21 to help them successfully complete high school and gain work experience while providing them with a support system for long-term stability.

FOX 32's Corey McPherrin headlines as emcee; Lawrence Hall's Therapeutic Day School staff honored with Champion for Children Award

CHICAGO, IL – Lawrence Hall announced today it had raised over $264,000 at its annual Fall Fete fundraiser on Saturday, September 22nd to support its mission and its Therapeutic Day School. For more than 150 years, Lawrence Hall has been delivering high quality care to at-risk youth and their families throughout the Chicago metropolitan area.

Lawrence Hall is a statewide leader in highly-effective, evidence-based, and innovative therapeutic treatment. The agency's unique continuum of care, which promotes overall well-being led by an expert staff, has positioned Lawrence Hall to meet the changing and complex needs of youth and families by not only becoming more community-based but by developing more preventative programs that help curb violence in our communities.

In appreciation for her office's leadership in the juvenile and criminal justice reform, Cook County Board President Toni Preckwinkle was presented with the Lawrence Hall Youth Advocacy Award.

"I'd like to thank Lawrence Hall for its dedication to children, Chicago and our greater community for more than 150 years. I'm a history teacher, and though it has been a while since I worked in the classroom, I know the value of education," said Preckwinkle. "It is the education I received and the act of teaching others that informed much of what I have hoped to achieve with young people of this county: to ensure that they have a chance to grow and prosper."

"The Cook County Board President's Office knows that caring for and teaching the children who need it most should be our highest priority. Each year, Lawrence Hall serves 1,000 youth and families who have suffered severe trauma in their lives. We do what we do every day to support them and make sure they have a future," said Kara Teeple, CEO, Lawrence Hall.

The evening also featured a video message from former US Secretary of Education Arne Duncan, who described his own experiences with Lawrence Hall and urged attendees to help promote their mission in individualized education.

This year, staff from Lawrence Hall's Therapeutic Day School were honored with the Champion for Children Award, which included a stirring video featuring interviews with teachers and students.
